Shaping the Future: Practice and Research Collaborative (PaRC) Launch and networking event

Venue: Central Leeds, Venue TBC, Date: Friday 21st June 2019, 10:00 – 13:30 (Followed by networking lunch)

We are delighted to announce the formation of a Public Health Practice and Research Collaboration (PaRC) supported by Public Health England, the Association of Directors of Public Health Network, NIHR Clinical Research Network (CRN) and regional academic institutions.

Aims and Objectives

To inform and update practitioners and researchers on the regional infrastructure we have in place to drive forward research, translation and innovation to support the transformation of public health practice with Yorkshire and the Humber.

To bring together public health practitioners and researchers from across the Yorkshire & Humber region to explore the opportunities we have to collaborate in research bids and to explore opportunities to align research into practice.
